Dear Simon,

Recently organic hr llp approached you to arrange our commercial insurances. This letter is to thank you for the excellent service you have provided.

As we are a consultancy firm providing professional advice on sensitive business issues, having appropriate indemnities in place is critical to our operation. You took the time to understand our particular requirements and selected cover that:

- Provided us with a substantial saving compared to the renewal quote from our previous provider
- Increased our level of protection
- Represented a good fit with our operation, with the cover tied to our firm as a whole, rather than individual principal consultants

In addition, the other insurance brokers we approached for alternative quotes conceded that they were unable to match the cover that your solution provided for us.

We are extremely happy with our insurances and feel that we can continue to move ahead positively knowing that both our clients and ourselves are appropriately protected.

Thank you once again for your time and for your professional advice. We will not hesitate to recommend you to our clients and partners alike.

Yours sincerely

SPENCER LORD
